The dance is for the Elks, their wives, sweethearts and visitors.

SIX SOULS MADE HAPPY.

A carload of new Fords was received this morning by the local dealers, Johnson & Rohde. A car load of Fords is only six cars and from the scramble that occurred around the Johnson & Rohde garage this morning it appeared that sixty-six would not have filled the wants of those clamoring for machines. The management of the Ford agency here can only let the cars go out in turn as ordered. While unloading the car this morning an employee of the garage was heard to remark, "Six souls are made happy to day."

large negro vote cast. This by reason of the good times Wharton county is now enjoying from the good prices paid for cotton and rice.

AN AMERICAN ARRESTED IN LONDON

Sentenced to Three Months at Hard Labor for Wearing British Uniform Unlawfully.

(By Associated Press.) London, Oct. 27.—A young man about 21 years of age, who gave his name as Arthur Alfred Wood of 510 Main street, Norfolk, Va., has been sentenced to three months at hard labor for illegally wearing the uniform of his majesty's forces with intent to deceive.

Wood was arrested several weeks ago in khaki in company with two other men similarly clad. All said they were absent from their regiments without leave and all were charged with being absentees. The regiments of two of the men eventually were traced, but Wood's statements conflicted and at last he admitted he was an American and had never been in the army. Then, as the London papers report it, "he was brought up on the new charge of illegally wearing his majesty's uniform."

KAISER ADDRESSES MEN AS COMRADES

Emperor William Says He Came Under Impulse of His Heart to Tank Somme Fighters.

(By Associated Press.) Berlin, Oct. 26.—Emperor William on his recent visit to the troops on the Somme front in France made the following speech, according to the correspondent of the Tageblatt:

"Comrades: Following an impulse of the heart, I have hurried to you from the east front to bring you the greetings of your comrades there and the thanks of the fatherland for the four months' hard struggles on the Somme and for the heroic manner in which you have fought. The world's history knows no parallel for the struggle in which you are participating and for the greatness of your deeds. For centuries the battle of the Somme will stand as a blazing model for the conquering will of a united people.

"It is in you that Germans will find expression, under whatever circumstances, to prevent the enemy from prostrating us to the ground and to stand firm against French insolence and British stubbornness. From all German regions you stand like a metal wall of German sense of duty and self-devoted valor, fighting to the last breath.

"On all sides the German people stand in a tenacious struggle against half the world and against manifest superiority of numbers. Even though it continues hard and endures long, yet the lord of hosts is with you. Those at home have besought him and he has inspired you with strength and courage. Trust in God, bravely feeling that you are fighting in a just cause.

"Thus I greet you, comrades. Hold out and the Lord will give his blessing to the end."

JAPANESE GARDEN.

Beyond the gates, carved strange with dragons fierce
And dwarfish demons horrible to see,
There lies a garden, fragrant in the hush
And brooding calm of many a century.

A smiling image from its moss-grown shrine
Looks out across a lake, rimmed round with flowers—
Flaming azaleas—where long-legged cranes
In family consultation stand for hours.

Here is the curving bridge, and then a path
Waist high with ferns comes suddenly to view;
Beyond—beneath the green gloom of tall trees—
Crouches a temple builded of bamboo.

Kingdoms may come and go—the gods of chance
Play havoc with the world. Th' ancient spot,
Where memory's flutes rehearse the storied past,
And Nippon's name is cherished, changes not!
—Maize V. Caruthers, in N. Y. Times.

Viscount Grey will have to ask for a statement about U-33's Newport call if he gets one from our government. U-33 had a right to call there, and our government is not making explanations every time a foreign warship calls at an American port.—Springfield Republican.

FAITH.

Across the dusky vale I hear
The vesper thrushes call;
Now far, like elfin flute, now near
The lyric answers fall.

Across the years heart calls to heart
With all the heart's deep cry;
The strains down silent aisles depart,
No lips of love reply.

But firmer than the hills that dream
The centuries away
Is that sure faith of love supreme
Untouched by time's decay—

The faith that waits, through years
Be long,
And vows, ere hope take flight,
A voice whose tones and sweetest song
Shall answer through the night!

WANT BAKER FIRED.

War Secretary Branded as Tory Carpetbagger by D. A. R.

Bellefontaine, Ohio, Oct. 27.—Secretary of War Newton D. Baker was referred to as a "Tory carpetbagger" and his dismissal is asked in resolutions adopted by the Daughters of the American Revolution and forwarded to President Wilson. The resolutions charge that the secretary of war said in a recent speech that the American soldiers in the revolutionary war "were as bad characters as the Mexican bandits of today."
